Community Connection Service is a non-optional, usage-based local calling plan intended to be an alternative to flat rate extended area service. The Commission approved a one year trial offering of Community Connection Service in Case No. 9953.<sup>1</sup> The trial ends May 31, 1990.

After review of the tariff filing, the Commission finds that further proceedings are necessary in order to determine its reasonableness and that such proceedings cannot be completed prior to the proposed effective date.
